Arapahoe County has one vacancy on the Citizen's Review Panel Residents are invited to apply by July 18, 2014

Littleton, Colo. — The Arapahoe County Board of County Commissioners is seeking applications from Arapahoe County residents who are interested in helping their community by serving on the Citizen's Review Panel.

The Citizen's Review Panel is a State-required conflict resolution process intended to provide a forum to parties involved in the child welfare system. The panel hears complaints and grievances concerning the conduct of County department personnel in performing their duties as outlined in the Colorado's Children's Code. Applicants will be given and must pass a background check prior to being appointed.

Citizens are appointed to serve a three-year term, and can serve a maximum of two consecutive terms, or no more than six years. Meetings are held as needed.

Interested residents can apply online by visiting the County's website at www.arapahoegov.com and going to Government > Citizen Boards and Committees. Applications also are available at the Board of County Commissioners' Office, located in the County Administration Building, 5334 S. Prince St., Fourth Floor, Littleton, CO 80120.

The application deadline is July 18, 2014.

For more information or to request an application by mail, call Carol Dosmann at 303-795-4531 or by email at cdosmann@arapahoegov.com.
