Colorado State University Extension of Arapahoe County's new location Service continues in a new temporary office at Arapahoe Plaza, Littleton

Littleton, Colo. – We've moved. CSU Extension of Arapahoe County will continue services providing citizens with community education, information and programs from the third floor of Arapahoe Plaza, 1690 W. Littleton Blvd. Littleton.

Arapahoe Plaza will be a temporary home until the new permanent office is completed. By summer 2015, CSU-Extension will move to its permanent location at Lima Plaza, Centennial.

The partnership between Arapahoe County and CSU Extension allows staff and volunteers to work with researchers and professors at Colorado State University and provide citizens with programs on topics ranging from youth development and family finances to health, agriculture, food safety, gardening and more.

CSU Extension is part of the national extension system which calls on land-grant universities in every state to deliver research-based information to Extension agents throughout the state. Colorado State University was charged with creating Extension offices within easy reach of all 64 Colorado counties. The Arapahoe County Extension office has been proud to support residents since 1917.

Lima Plaza is currently home to the Department of Public Works, Open Spaces, Arapahoe/ Douglas Works!, Clerk and Recorder Motor Vehicle and Driver's License and Judicial Services.

Phone numbers to CSU Extension remains the same and can be reached by calling the main office 303-730-1920.
