Support 4-H at the Horse and Livestock Tack and Equipment Swap Join Arapahoe County 4-H Horse Committee at Fairgrounds Dec. 2

LITTLETON, CO --- Are you looking for the perfect gift for the horse lover in your life? Or maybe for some new tack and equipment for yourself? Join Arapahoe County 4-H and support the Horse Committee at the second annual Horse and Livestock Tack and Equipment Swap.

When: Saturday, Dec. 2

Where: Arapahoe County Fairgrounds, 25690 E. Quincy Ave., Aurora, 80011

The swap is free to attend and a percentage of the proceeds benefit the Arapahoe County 4-H Horse Committee. A variety of horse tack and other equipment will be available for sale. Additionally, free educational programs for equine enthusiasts and small acreage owners will be held during the swap at the following times:

- 10:15 a.m.: Manure Management, Jennifer Cook, Small Acreage Management Coordinator, CSU Extension
- 11:30 a.m.: Large Animal Emergency Preparedness, Ashley Cappel, Emergency Management Supervisor, Arapahoe County Office of Emergency Management
- 12:45 p.m.: Grazing Management and Pasture Restoration, Andie Wommack, Small Acreage Agent, Douglas County CSU Extension

For more information contact Jonathan Vrabec at 303-730-1920 or jvrabec@arapahoegov.com. Enrollment in 4-H is open through April 1 for new members. 4-H members prepare projects and compete at the Arapahoe County Fair, held each July.

The Arapahoe County CSU Extension office is located at 6934 S. Lima St., Suite B, Centennial, 80112. More information on CSU Extension and 4-H is available at <http://arapahoe.extension.colostate.edu/> or by calling 303-730-1920.
